

About me

I've been working as a Sound Recordist for nearly 10 years on documentaries, corporates and commercials, as well as 2nd unit on TV drama. I'm well trusted by clients and the majority of my work is repeat bookings, I'm now just trying to move away from drama and expand my client list.

Every project has different requirements and your project may not require all of my gear. If you need anything additional I can easily get my hands on most kit through my close network of rental houses and other sound professionals. I'm based in North London.
